“My Child accepted Jesus now what?”

Deuteronomy 6:6 – 7 These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.

The first steps to take seem simple but they are vital.

First of all try and help your child establish a regular prayer routine, you know their schedule better than anyone else so help them pick a time that works for everyone. Praying together as a family is important but this prayer time should be on their own.

Next help them develop a habit of reading their Bible. If they do not have one yet plan a fun day to go pick one out at a local Christian bookstore. If your child is unable to read you will need to make their Bible study time one that you can be there for. At any age scripture memorization is possible, just make sure to pick a short verse or abbreviate a long verse.

A regular prayer life and Bible reading coupled together with regular church attendance will set your child on path of living for and serving Jesus!
